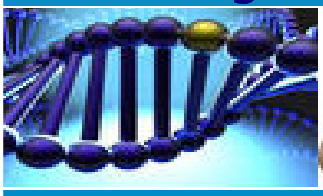
Learning Technical English

Steven L. Hanft, M.A. Editor



for the Medical Sector, Life Sciences & Industry - Summer 2008, Vol. 12

With the summer season in full gear, we are going to take a break from the normal use of a text to read and then answer questions linked to our Questionnaire. Thus, we would appreciate your taking a few moments of your time to answer or make comment to the following questions below.

WE WANT YOUR FEEDBACK!

Survey on our previous LTE issues - What interests you most?

To review previous LTE Newsletters, please go to our website. Than pls. answer the following questions and send the answers to:

1. Which LTE Newsletter issue did you find most interesting?
2. Why did this issue interest you the most?

For future LTE issues, what areas of technical English would you like to see further approached?

3. Grammar? Vocabulary?
4. Different types of questioning?
5. Scientific, medical or other topics?
6. Comparing British-English vs. American-English?
7. Others?
8. Would you have other recommendations e.g. towards the LTE Newsletter's style, its layout, a different slant on a life science topic or the news, etc. > Tell us what you think.

"I didn't get a good look at him. All I know is one of them stole all the meat out of my grocery bag."

If you'd like to share this LTE Newsletter with friends & colleagues, feel free to forward this issue and invite them to subscribe for their own next issue (no fees involved!).

Don't let language be a barrier to your success!

CONUS Business, Advice & Training

Provider of Technical English Workshops: Life Science, Medical Sectors & Industry

D: Kruppstr. 18, 52072 Aachen, Tel. +49 241 81987 / Fax: +49 241 81928
NL: Spinnewiel 18, 1252 DB Laren, Tel. +31 35 5435911
USA: 269-10 Grand Central Pkwy., NYC, NY 11005, Tel. 718 279 4025

www.conusbat.com

Copyright 2008 - CONUSBAT