CONUSBAT Interactive Skills Series

Germany & America seek future Leaders!

Each group's task will be to select one person from their group to:

- make a presentation and help him/her formulate their speech for the audience
- write on a flip chart the group's main proposals, suggestions or recommendations
- Length of speech: 2-3 min.
- Depending on the number of participants there can be a total of 6 groups with 6-12 people per group

Each group will select a future European or American leader to pretend speaking to...

1. Ed Whittaker, General Motor's new CEO about Opel's financial & labor situation
2. Greenpeace organization about climate change
3. Either: President Obama & Members of Congress at the US Capitol or the EU Parliament, Brussels, Belgium
4. Hu Jintao, China's Prime Minister in Beijing
5. Manouchehr Mottaki, Iran's Foreign Minister visiting in Berlin
6. Leaders from African nations (each group selects 1-3 well known African leaders)

Approach

- All CONUSBAT workshops are presented in American-English, and we encourage the participants to interact and allow for discussion.
- Length of workshop & fee are based on agreement

Target Groups

- Gymnasium [High School] or university students
- Internationally active business people
- People in politics, embassies/consulates or other international arenas
- People interested in what is 'moving & shaking' in the world
